The 1982 Shingle

After spending many late nights in the dark room together, the 1981-82 Shingle Staff collected many of the year's memories for you. They show how times have changed and will continue to change.

This year was off to a terrific start when Beavers and Lynx, who were once rivals, became the best of friends. The staff learned the meaning of "teamwork" and its importance in making the Shingle.

We hope you enjoy the 1982 Shingle as much as we enjoyed putting it together. Also, we hope you don't forget these memories as times keep changing.

Not everyone realizes the importance of our photographers. It takes a person with a special devotion and a great deal of patience to be able to take picture after picture throughout the year, striving for that "perfect shot" to make your Shingle the best!

We say thank you to the 1981-82 Annual Staff photographers for your hard work in the darkroom—we realize how hard it is to work in the dark. Again we say thank you and we appreciate the long hours you put in and the hard work you did and remember to keep smiling!

BALLARD HIGH SCHOOL

Boltin' Thru In '82

Full of spirit and ready to "tackle" the new year, the 1982 squad was fortunate enough to cheer on a winning football team, "kicking off" a feeling of pride in B.H.S. and promise for sports to come. This year we were faced with a unique situation. Due to the closure of both Lincoln and Queen Anne High schools, we had the added challenge of bringing together students from all parts of the city.

In August we went to Cheer Camp, where we perfected our moves and won three superior awards. This inspired us to start off the year with a bang!

The Cheersquad, working with the Pep Squad, faculty, and student body, made this a very successful and spirited year!

Pep's Spirit In '82

Boy, has Pep Squad really changed! The last couple of years there wasn't much of a squad, but this year they've shown their spirit and dedication to Ballard High. They've done a super job making posters and helping arrange our assemblies. We thank you all!

BALLARD TALISMAN

The Talisman, although under staffed and underfunded, still strives to attain two major goals: to continue informing and entertaining the Ballard High School community and producing an award-winning newspaper.

In a year that has combined ninth graders, Lincoln and Queen Anne students, new teachers and bilingual students the Talisman attempted to provide relevant articles for everyone. Val Dunatov

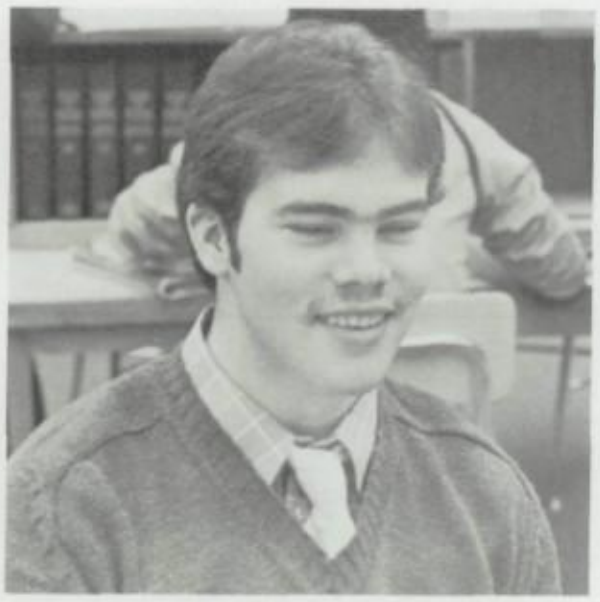
A.S.B. Works for Ballard



President, Preston Gillespie

The A.S.B. helped the students, in different clubs and organizations, raise money and advised them in their activities. One of their main concerns was the welfare of Ballard's students and teachers. A.S.B. conducted a survey with a few students on what their idea of an effective school is. The school year was a challenge with our doubling enrollment.

BOWLING

He went that away

The Ballard Bowling Team was the first team ever to win Metro League three years in a row; '77-'78, '79-'80, '81-'82. Ballard Beavers were also state champions two years straight. There were two teams, girls and boys, consisting of five players on each. They met every Monday for matches and Thursdays for practices. The bowlers ended the year with a great success and hope that the winning streak goes on to 82-83.

LUNCHROOM-HELPERS

The Lunch room assistants had to do a lot of changing, because there had to be a lot of changing done because several schools in the area of Ballard closed. That meant that many students from Lincoln, came to Ballard. Some of the things that were done to help service was a hotdog wagon was put in the hall for lunch, and there was a salad bar every day instead of every other day. Even though a few students tried to have the school divided into two lunch periods for expediency.The Lunch room assistants maintained speedy service for all.

Nurse's Assistants

Assistants who worked in the Nurse's office had to run errands, file locator and health cards. They needed to know how to read a thermometer as well as take temperatures. Cleaning small wounds and applying band aids was important. They learned to answer the telephone and take messages when the nurse was busy taking care of Ballard students.

Robert Bune

Opportunities continue to grow for photo students at Ballard. This year has seen the addition of several new SLR cameras to add to camera experience. Also there has been the addition of color printing. We've made relatively good color prints from negatives and slides. As long as there are interested students, there will be lots of activity in photography at Ballard.-Bob Bune

So Mr. Bune, what do you think?

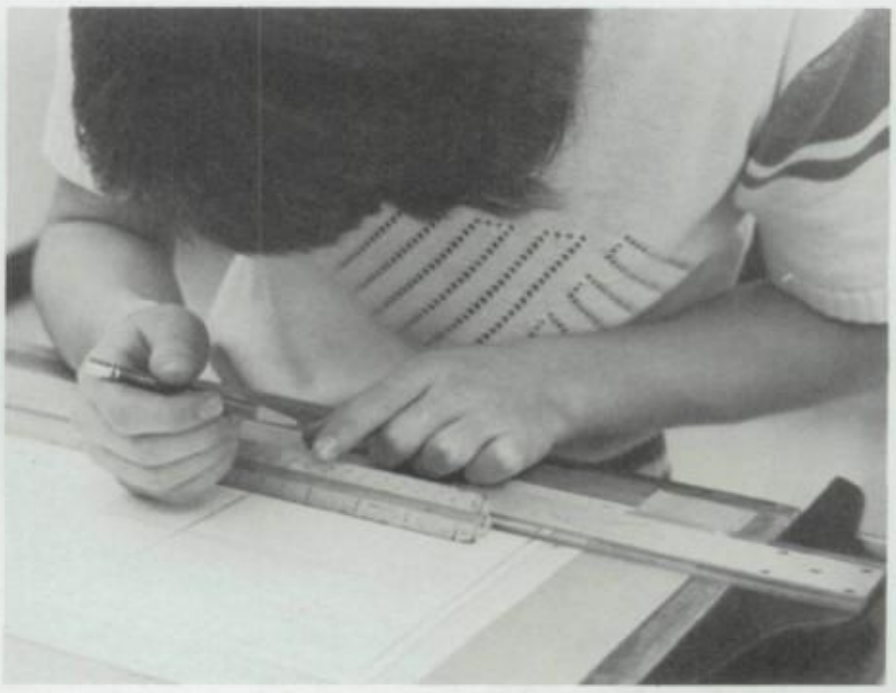
The Industrial Age Changes



In Industrial Art classes students get the opportunity to learn the basics of certain trades, such as; carpentry, drafting, printing, automotive fields, welding, silk-screening, and many more. The past year has been a very productive one for students who took Industrial Arts classes. With the addition of new teachers the department has gained many new classes.

This was one of the years when Ballard Chorale activities continued right through the summer. In July 1981, a group of seniors, graduates and alumni Chorale members traveled and sang their way through England, Scottland, Wales, and Ireland, on the eighth Ballard Chorale Europe trip. In August, the Chorale sang at the Boeing Company rollout ceremony for the new 767 jetliner.

The new school year brought new students from Lincoln, and younger students in the 9th grade. After some preliminary singing, around Seattle, the Ballard Chorale and Alumni crossed a snowy Stevens Pass to meet in Leavenworth for singing at the Christmas Lighting Ceremony. Then followed the usual busy Christmas singing for Chorale and Choir. By the end of 1st Semester the singing groups had a repertory of songs and some good singing experience together ready for an interesting spring of singing and traveling!

SHOW-BIZ '81

Show Biz '81-December 4, 5, 6

Under the direction of Mr. Kelly and dance choreographer Wendy Sherill, the show opened with a number from "42nd Street." The cast danced their way across the stage in many bright colors. This year's acts varied tremendously from dancing to singing to comedy. The actors made fun of T.V. commercials and spoofed popular movies. Some of the sketches enjoyed by the audience were selections from "The Loud Family", "The Stuntman", "Urban Cow Poke", "Pirates of Penzance", and Ballard's version of the "Andrew Sisters." Show Biz was concluded with "Broadway Dances" from "Woman of the Year."

A cast of about 75 Ballard students, together with roughly 10 stage crew members, started once again to put on an annual event. The event was called "Show Biz, Show Biz", and like every year, it was a huge success. But, have you ever thought about how much work it takes to do something like, "Show Biz"? Have you ever thought about the many long hours it takes of studying lines? Of the 30 sec. costume changes it needs? Of the tedious job of putting on make-up? Do you care? Well, an audience never seems to realize all the work it requires to put on a show. While the audience is intensely watching the actors on stage, the real important action is going on backstage. Actors are busy making quick 30 sec. costume changes, the lighting crew is watching and listening closely for their cues, and the stage crew is getting the props, both large and small, ready for the next act. Unseen by the audience, the stage crew must stay out of sight, doing all their work with little recognition. So the next time you see a production, remember that there's a lot of work that goes into those things, both seen and unseen, and while you're enjoying the show, try to think about how well you would do in the person's place.

The 1981-'82 Girls' Softball Team, worked well together. They finished the season off with a 7-5 win loss record to gain a play-off spot. In the play-offs Ballard lost a heartbreaker to Ingraham in the last inning by the score of 4-3. Brad McClure did an excellent job as a volunteer coach. Brad was the coach at Lincoln and with its closure offered his time to Ballard. Mike McGillicudy claims the reason for success is the together-ness.

Beavers Fight To

The 1981 season was one of growth for Ballard's volleyball team. With only a single returning letterman, most of the members were first year players. Having a rough season, the inexperienced squad suffered a series of losses which were attributed to lack of offensive execution.

"A season doesn't have to be a winning season to be worthwhile." This statement has certainly been proved by the 1982 volleyball team, whose talent cannot be fully appreciated by the standings. Although winning did not play a major part in their season, the team showed great effort and improvement throughout the season. The girls show a lot of strength, skill, and strong potential for becoming next year's winning team.

Cross Country

Cross country is a tough grinding sport. It was a good year for the Ballard fleetrunner, in general, and cross country promises to be even better next year as many will return in the fall. Top runners for the guys' team included Kari Pesse, Eric Dyrness, Steven Mickell, and Jeff and Scott Costanzo. The women's team top runners included, Mandy Aguirre, Keni Perrin and Carol Pfeiffer. The men's team placed 3rd in Metro and 12th in District; the women's team placed 6th in Metro.

The 1981 Ballard Girls' Golf Team finished fourth place in Metro. Considering that seven out of the eight girls never played golf before, they did an excellent job. Five of the eight girls qualified for the All-Metro Individual Tournament: Sally Boitano, Kristi Halvorsen, Paula King, Melissa Moran, and Lisa Schloredt. The team didn't "putt" around; they got into the swing of things. Their scores might have been low, but in this case that's what counted.

The 1981 Ballard Boys' Golf Team had a very successful season. With several returning members, the Beavers should be even stronger next year. The boys' team finished tied for second place in Metro. Steve Detert qualified for both the All-Metro and District 2 Individual Tournaments. His excellent effort won him the team's inspirational award. The seniors were Gail Larsen and Captain-Roy Lynch.

The team was "stroking" to win, with the help of Coach Al Harada and his knowledge of golf. With the talent of many Ballard Boys the team started the season in a blaze and ended at the eighteenth hole.

Girls Shoot For The Top

It seems there were more crowds present for the women's Varsity Basketball Team than in the past. The team played with great enthusiasm and gusto! Coach Young pushed the team to work hard and drilled them to improve skills unlike J.V. who learned basic skills. All in all, it was a great season.

J.V. Shoots For Varsity

Coach Iwami and the Fischer twins

Junior Varsity went through their season this year with little recognition, but this didn't affect their team spirit, drive and "shooting" for the best of scores!

Coach Young guided the team with the help of Assistant Coach Iwami and Volunteer coaches Ellen and Laurie Fischer. Because of experiences gained this season the team should be well prepared for Varsity next year.

Ballard Wrestlers

Captains listen

The 1982 Wrestling team had an encouraging beginning as 34 enthusiastic people turned out. Their hard practising and dedication displayed an important aspect to this season's winnings.

Captains Cory Turner and Todd Harris, and returning lettermen Ron Reidlinger and Earl Eastmark were among our top wrestlers who intimidated their opponents and helped the Ballard Standings.

Each individual worked hard to be a good fighter and each wrestler was inspirational to one another. They worked together well, which made them a winning team.

J.V. Builds for the Future

This year was very promising for the Beavers as countless dual matches were won. There was no set J.V. team. Each member wrestled and contributed to the team's season. Many of these skillful young wrestlers are sure to be tough defenders next year. They showed great potential to become part of a winning varsity team.

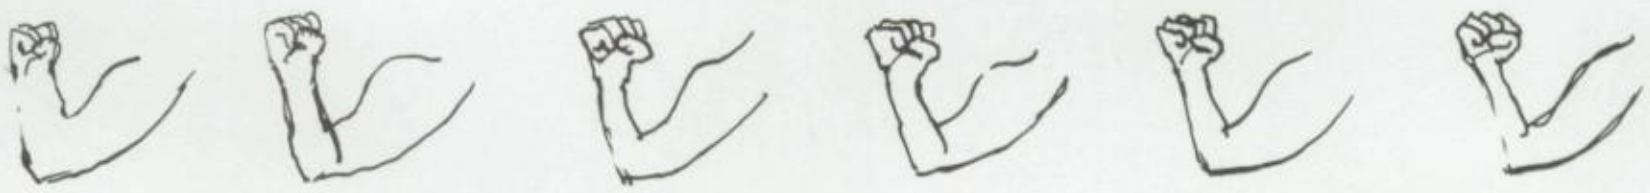
Coach Lee points it out



The 1981-82 swim team started things off with hopes of floating to the top of the league.

Even though there was no team last year, there are many returning lettermen from the 1979-80 swim season, giving experience to the group.

The Beavers had a new coach this year. His name is Don Gregor, and every day after school he commutes from Kimball Elementary School to be a part of the Beaver Spirit!

In Memoriam
Of
Mr. Bateman

William "Jack" Bateman former head counselor and friend to everyone who met him, died on June 13, 1981 of a heart attack. Bateman spent 14 years at Ballard High School of which at least 10 years were as head counselor.

Bateman will be remembered as counselor and friend to the Class of 1982-he looked forward to being their Senior counselor.

Mrs. Iwami remembers Bateman as being, "a sincere and dedicated person. He was very concerned about all the students' welfare, and he took a personal interest in each of the students he counseled. He gave encouragement for the future of the students he saw come and go through Ballard."

Bateman left his entire estate which was valued at approximately $70,000 to the Seattle Public School District especially for scholarships for Ballard High School students.

Senior Miguel Flores remembers Bateman: "A very good counselor. He knew what was going on with the students and he cared about that. He always helped with good advice and he helped plan for the future."

Shawn Snider, one of Bateman's TA's last year, remembers his feelings when he heard the news about Bateman. "It was a definite surprise. It was sad. He put all his efforts into helping students. I told his other TA's, and they were also sad."

Bateman's kindness will always be with the students and staff members of Ballard

We the 1981-1982 Shingle Staff hope this book is enjoyed by all who read it. We couldn't have done the job without the help of many other people.

Thanks to Everyone Especially:

Josten's American Yearbook Co. for publishing the Shingle; Milt Bean for answering all those questions and guiding us to the end; Rowland Studio, Margarit Kelly and Bruce Johnson, for his cooperation; The Ballard faculty for their patience; Mr. Bune for helping with the Shingle cover; Tom Carlson for his custodial assistance; Mr. McKim for cheersquad pictures; Laurie McKim for printing and use of her photographs; Kim Hoff, Mike Schumacher, and John Sollesvik, for the use of their negatives; Mrs. Mackner for all her help; special thanks to the new staffers: Karen Anderson, Jesse Baber, Suzie Kramer, Don Kriley, Billie Jo Mitchell, Suzie Short, Mike Visor, and also to the class of 1982 for inspiring us to show the "Changing Times."

Ballard Baseball

Baseball has taken a new meaning at Ballard with a Metro championship in 1981. This year they lived up to the challenge that was put to them, with the help of Coach McDonald and Assistant Coach Holland. The class of '82 was impregnable with eight seniors starting.

Ballard Men's Soccer Team has done great this year. Many returning players from last year's team which won Metro have helped this year's team to stay on top and shoot for Metro again.

Being the youngest soccer team in the Metro League, the girls have not had a great deal of success in winning; however, they have shown that they can compete and are on the verge of being successful.

Their enthusiasm and youth have contributed to spirited and hard working practices which, hopefully, will lead to a bright future.

This has been one of Ballard's largest Tennis Teams in years. It has also been one of the best. At Shingle deadline time they are a winning team with members helping and supporting each other. It is believed that this year Ballard has some of the best tennis players in the state. The group has good strong players with a lot of spirit.

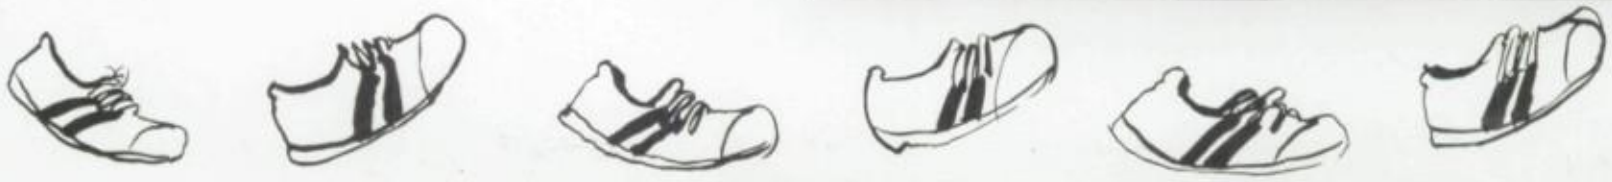
The Ballard Girls' Track Team consisted of about 10 enthusiastic members who practiced daily and had a meet once a week. Even though it was a small team, Coach Townsend said, "It was a good year!"



The Ballard Men's Track Team had a big 25-member team led by coach S. Tsutsumi and Managers Martin Cambell and Fred Selz. They practiced daily and had meets twice a week. The team was made up of mostly freshmen and sophomores, so we should be seeing some of the same team next year.

Ballard Trainers

Lisa Schloredt
Head Trainer

The students who help keep BHS athletes bandaged and wrapped are the "trainers" or first aid helpers who cared enough about our athletes to give up their free time and volunteered to help out. But not just anyone could "help out" because special training was needed in order to give proper care. The trainers had to be dedicated and very proficient at what they did so that the athletes were kept in top form.
